Mon., September 21

I wore a pink blouse and a blue skirt to work. I just bought the blouse at Mary's Department Store yesterday. It started a big sale yesterday and the sale will go for one month. I wore my sneakers to work today because it was a rainy day. I didn't want my boots to get wet. However, I didn't notice that my sneakers had a small hole, so I went to Mary's Department Store right after work. Then I bought a new pair for a song. It was cheaper than I had thought.

Thu., September 24

Today is the hottest day of the month. I wore a red T-shirt and green shorts to work. I also played badminton with my students in their PE class. Students were surprised that I played better than they did.
